

Introduction to Homeopathy

by

Maureen Hanson

Maureen began using homeopathy in 1989 with her four sons. She has attended conferences at the Texas Society of Homeopathy since 2000. She became a member of the board in 2008. She became Treasurer in 2009 and became President in 2012. She remains on the board as a member at large. She took the National Center for Homeopathy First Aid course in San Diego and she has continued to be taking homeopathy courses and studying online. She taught the First Aid and Acute Care Course at the Texas Society of Homeopathy conference in the Fall of 2012. She also taught the course in the Spring of 2010 to the Texas Organic Farmers and Gardeners Association (TOFGA). She graduated with a B.S. in Business from Texas Christian University in 1983.
